Dear Dr. Shicheng Guo,

On behalf of the Open Journal of Rheumatology and Autoimmune Diseases (OJRA) Editorial Board and Scientific Research Publishing (<http://www.scirp.org/journal/ojra>), we would like to invite you to review the following manuscript(s).

Paper ID:( 2040201)

Paper Title: Novel identification of LYVE-1 positive mac-rophages in rheumatoid synovial tissue.

Abstract:

Objective: LYVE-1+ macrophages are observed in a range of cancers, where they play a role in tu-mour lymphangiogenesis. In rheumatoid arthritis (RA), lymphangiogenesis increases in the early stage of the disease and decreases as it progresses, potentially exacerbating inflammatory cell persistence. We investigated whether LYVE-1+ macrophages were present in RA synovium. Methods: Synovial tissue from RA patients was obtained at joint replacement surgery and im-munohistochemistry was performed to visualise LYVE-1+ and CD68+ cells. Results: LYVE-1+ macrophages were present in rheumatoid synovial tissue, the first observation of this kind. Conclusion: Despite the reduction in lymphangiogenesis in chronic RA there is a potential role for macrophages in the generation of lymphatic vessels. This electronic document is a "live" template. The various components of your paper [title, text, heads, etc.] are already defined on the style sheet, as illustrated by the portions given in this document. (Abstract)
